Professional development credits: Illinois Judicial College's Committee on Probation Education (COPE)

We are pleased to announce that credits will be available for the 2023 ARI All-Sites Summit through the Illinois Judicial College's Committee on Probation Education (COPE), due to ICJIA's status as a presumptive provider of professional development and training. In order for us to assist you in obtaining COPE credits, please remember to 1) sign in at registration each day that you attend and 2) complete the event evaluation located in your 2023 ARI All-Sites Summit folder. ARI staff will follow up with a confirmation email to confirm your participation for each day's events. Your supervisor will then attach the confirmation to the Illinois Judicial College's COPE conference training log as proof of your activities following the event.
